

Kenton Past & Present Society

Programme for 2021

20 January    Cancelled

17 March    Cancelled

19 May        Powderham Castle outdoor tour (14:30)

A stroll around the exterior of the castle with insights from Tour Guides and the castle archivist.

23 June        Kenton, the Courtenays & Powderham Estate - a talk by Exeter University

Representatives from Exeter University will bring us up to date with recent research into aspects of the land around Kenton, Kenn, Kennford and Powderham, aspects that have been revealed through the use of their own innovative Technology.

21 July        Venues unavailable

15 September The History of Dawlish - a talk by David Force

From Fishing Village to Seaside Resort - the talk considers how and why Dawlish grew through the 19th Century.

20 October    Court Hall Asylum and the Remarkable Mules Sisters – a talk by Ann Roberts

17 November Exeter in 1743 - a talk by Todd Gray

Exeter in 1743 was in the midst of its two great periods of expansion in the cloth trade and yet was no longer one of England's leading industrial cities. A newly discovered map of 1743 allows us to re-examine Exeter during this time of considerable change.